

Volunteering Policy

Policy Statement

Rotherfield St Martin is a registered charity, which exists to prevent isolation and loneliness and to keep our community connected. Run by a small team of staff and trustees, volunteers play a pivotal role within the charity.

Rotherfield St Martin is committed to involving volunteers directly to:

- Contribute to the delivery and continuity of services
- Make sure we are responsive to the needs of members
- Provide different skills and perspectives
- Offer opportunities for community spirit to flourish

This volunteer policy sets out the principles and practice by which Rotherfield St Martin involves volunteers. All other policies can be accessed by volunteers on our website at www.rotherfieldstmartin.org.uk. All volunteers will be supplied with a Volunteer Handbook and online volunteer training. The main point of contact for all volunteers is our Volunteer Coordinator.

Principles

Rotherfield St Martin:

- Recognises that voluntary work brings benefits to volunteers themselves, to members, trustees and staff.
- Will ensure that volunteers are properly integrated into the organisational structure and that mechanisms are in place for them to contribute to the charity's work.
- Expects that staff will work positively with volunteers and, where appropriate, will actively seek to involve them in their work.
- Recognises that volunteers require satisfying work and personal development and will seek to help volunteers meet these needs, as well as providing the training for them to do their work effectively.
- Will endeavour to identify and cover the costs of involving volunteers.
- Recognises that the management of volunteers requires designated responsibilities within specific posts.

- Will endeavour to involve volunteers from a wide range of backgrounds and abilities and ensure volunteering opportunities are as accessible as possible.

3. Recruitment

Recruitment of volunteers will generally be from all sections of the community and will be in line with the Equal Opportunities Policy.

People interested in becoming volunteers with Rotherfield St Martin will be invited for an informal talk with the Volunteer Co-ordinator about the opportunities available to them and their appropriateness to fulfil that role. If appropriate, they will be given a Volunteer Application Form and general information about the organisation and specific information on the volunteer post in which they are interested.

All volunteers will be asked to complete the Application Form and to supply details of two referees.

Every volunteer will be vetted for suitability . For volunteer roles which involve direct contact with vulnerable adults, Rotherfield St Martin has a legal obligation to ensure that volunteers are not barred from working with adults or vulnerable groups. Volunteers will be asked to complete a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check. This information will be dealt with in the strictest confidence.

4. Volunteer Agreements and Voluntary Work Outlines

Volunteers will be required to sign a volunteer agreement to demonstrate that they understand the requirements and responsibilities of the role.

5. Induction and Training
